

IN THE UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF ALABAMA

In re: KRISTY ROGERS)
ROBERT ROGERS)	CASE NO. 22-81015
)	CHAPTER 7
Debtor(s))

MOTION TO RECONSIDER ORDER GRANTING MOTION TO DISMISS CASE

Now Comes the Debtors, KRISTY and ROBERT ROGERS, by and through the undersigned counsel, and moves this Court to reconsider its Order Granting the Trustee's Motion to Dismiss Case and states as follows:

1. The above referenced Debtor filed the underlying bankruptcy case on June 6, 2022.
2. The Debtor submitted all necessary documents to file a complete and competent petition, however I, Franklin Posey acting as their legal counsel, failed to submit a portion of those documents required for a complete Ch. 7 bankruptcy petition.
3. On June 21, 2022, the Trustee filed a Notice of Incorrect Event/Filing for failure to make the initial Ch. 7 payment.
4. The Debtor responded by making the payment within two days.
5. The Debtor has since been given notice of Dismissal by the Bankruptcy Court received on July 1, 2022 for failure to comply with the applicable Bankruptcy Rules in filing the case ie., failure to include pay devices.
6. On July 1, 2022 counsel uploaded all pay devices sufficient to complete the Ch. 7 petition.
7. Counsel prays this court does not dismiss Mr. and Mrs. Roger's Bankruptcy petition for the failings of their counsel and reconsider the Dismissal Order.

WHEREFORE, movant prays for an Order setting aside the Order, along with such further and other relief as this court may deem proper.

Respectfully submitted this the 5th day of July, 2022.
